Background on the Gospel

In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of.

Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man's lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry.

"You fool" is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God.

Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone.

Pray for Our Diocese Priest

Please pray for all priests that they might be faithful to their sacred calling.

"In gratitude for the many priests who have served the diocese and those who continue in the ministry, may God continue to grant them the grace to be instruments and experience of God's love and presence."

Holy Fathers June Intentions

The Vatican has released the prayer intentions of Pope Benedict XVI for July 2010.

The Pope's general intention is: "That those who are without work or homes or who are otherwise in serious need may find understanding and welcome, as well as concrete help in overcoming their difficulties."

His missionary intention is: "That the Church maybe a "home" for all people, ready to open its doors to any who are suffering from racial or religious discrimination, hunger, or wars forcing them to emigrate to other countries."

Catholic Ladies Relief Society

As most of you already know the CLRS operate and maintain a Food Locker here at St. Joseph Parish and have done so for 20+ years. This operation alone helps feed approximately 300 individuals a month just in our community. It has come to be a source of hope for many families who struggle from month to month especially those with little children.

Thankfully we do receive a lot of help and donations from our fellow parishioners here at St. Joseph and we are truly grateful for all you've done however we still need your help to continue this vital service to the less fortunate. We are currently asking for non perishable food items which do not require refrigeration and can be placed in the baskets in the vestibule of the church or dropped off at the parish office.

Here are a few suggested items: Peanut butter, tuna, canned fruit or vegetables, soups, tomato sauce, stew, chili or baked beans, dry beans, rice, top ramen, cereals, spaghetti, pasta meals or macaroni and cheese.

Going on Vacation?

The CLRS could also use your help. Save those mini hotel soaps and bottles of shampoo for the food locker.

All donations would be welcomed and greatly appreciated.
